

Stories of

Little Red Guards

Stories of Little Red Guards

Peng Kuo-liang

FOREIGN LANGUAGES PRESS PEKING 1975

PUBLISHER'S NOTE

These little stories in pictures are the spare-time work of a printer. Delightfully near to the children's life, they show how in their everyday activity the Little Red Guards, who wear red scarfs, find joy in helping others and how they love the collective.

The Little Red Guards is a mass organization of Chinese primary school students under the leadership of the Communist Party of China.

How we got to school.

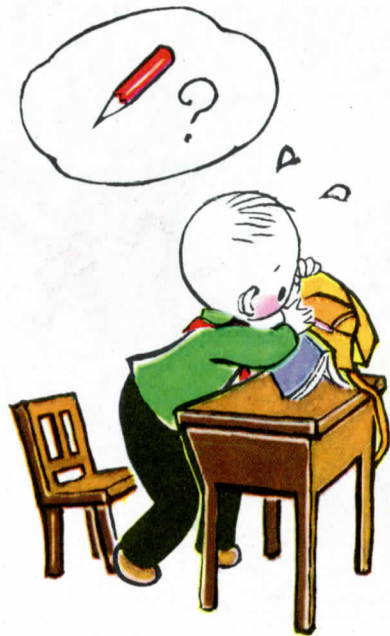

Mending a school bag.

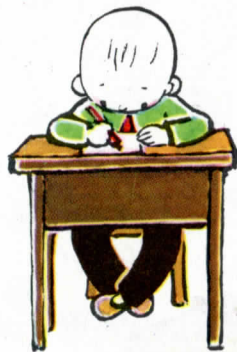

1

2

A new handkerchief.

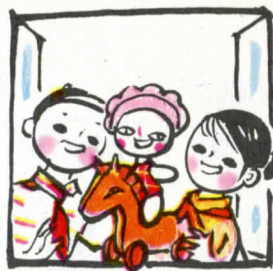

Repairing toys.

3

4

Helping with the washing.

1

2

3

4

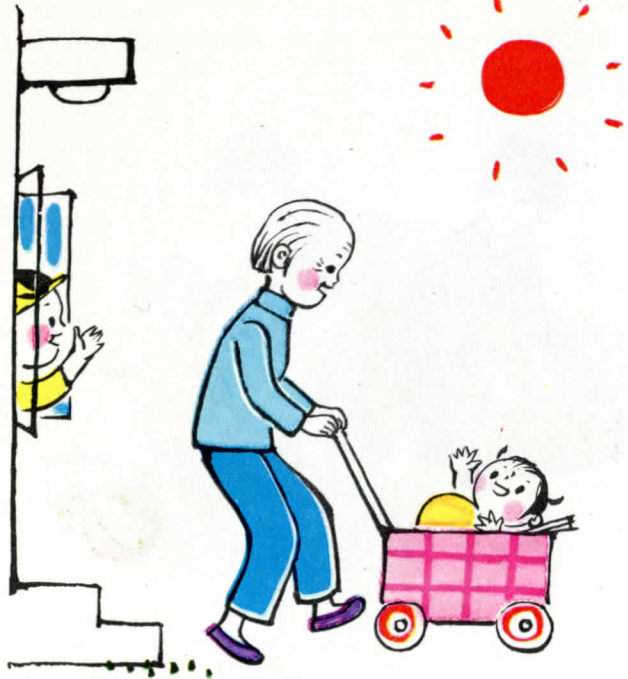

5

6

Sending umbrellas.

1

2

3

Sending tea to the fields.

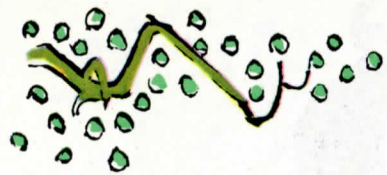

1

2

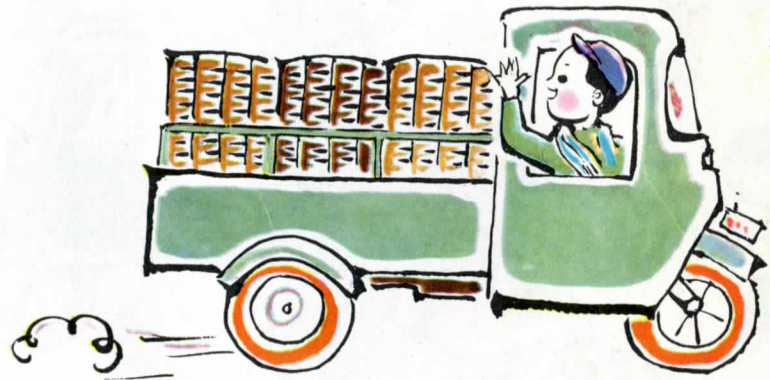

A race.

Planting trees, care of saplings.

1

2

3

4

5

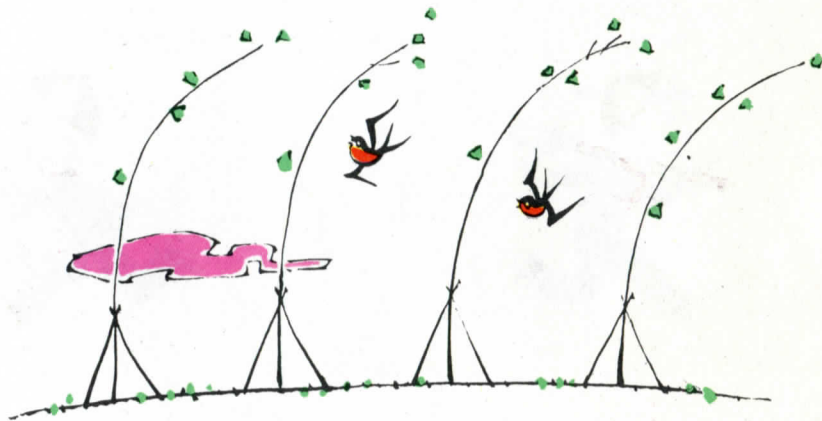

6

7

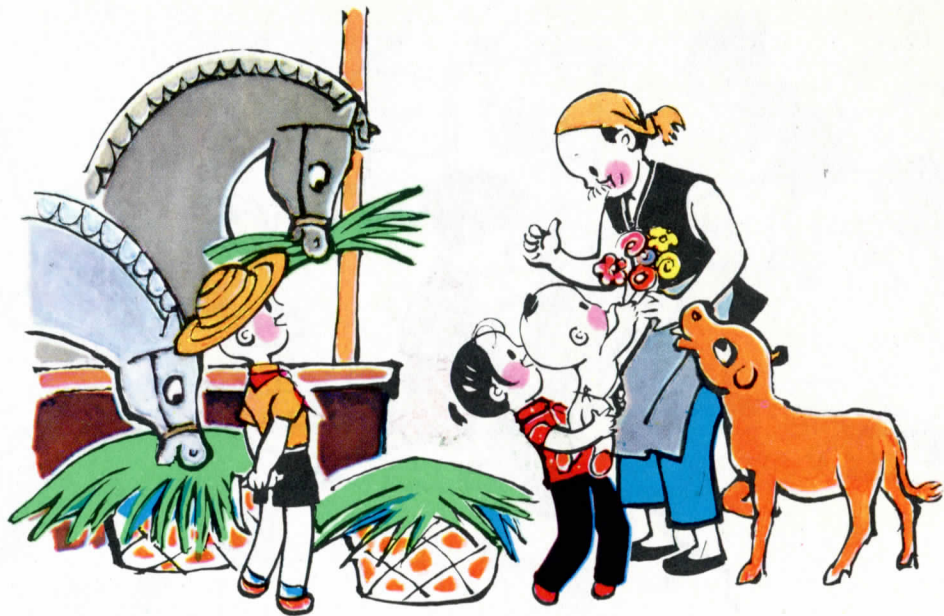

8

Cutting grass.

Returning the fish, mending the fence.

1

2

3

4

5

Waiting for the bus.

1

2

5

6

7

红小兵的故事

彭国良 编绘

•

外文出版社出版（北京）

1975年（24开）第一版

编号：（英）8050—1492

00140（精）

00080（平）

88—E—126

